Left: On the dance floor, Tyler Oliveira, Jarred Medeiros, and Kurt Molina perform the famous Cupid Shuffle. Jarred stated, "I loved prom night it was actually really fun and enjoyable with everyone getting along."

Top: Entering the late stages of prom night, Derek Shorey and Kendra Sarmiento enjoy quality time on the dance floor together. "My favorite part of prom was dancing and being surrounded with all my friends and such great people," said Derek.

As was the scene for most of the night, the Class of 2013 kept the dance floor occupied and held their spirits high as they celebrated one of their final class events of high school.

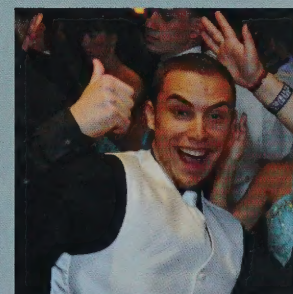

How did Prom Night live up to your expectations?

"My prom night was great. It lived up to my expectations 100%. Good friends, good food, good times. Couldn't of had it better."
- Naython DeBarros

"Prom was just the one night everyone could dress up, have fun, and enjoy each other. It was perfect."
-Ashley Rebello

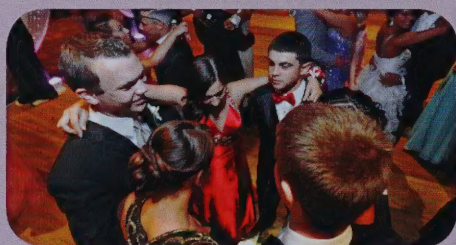

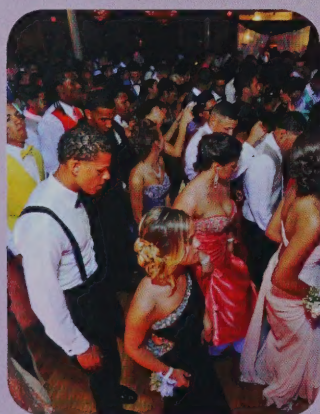

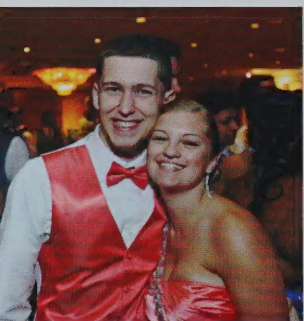

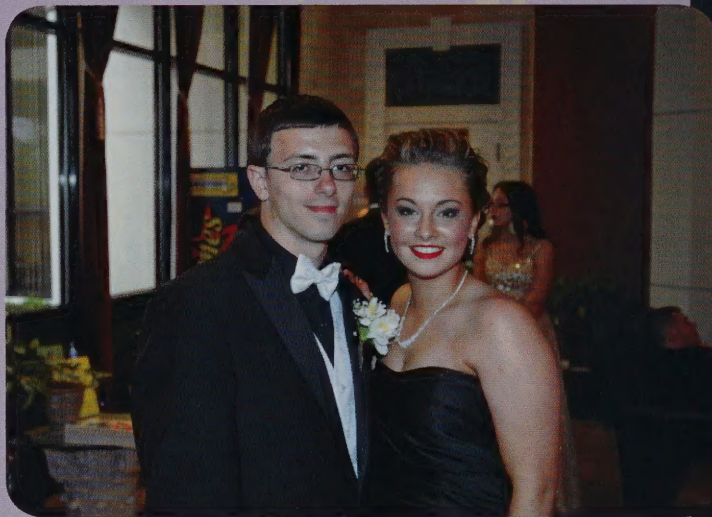

"It seemed more like a normal banquet if you ask me."
-Joao Medeiros

"Prom night was the best experience of my life and I didn't expect to have as much fun as I did."

"I love how I grew up with Drama Club, and it grew up with me."

-Jacob Benoit

In order for the Drama Club to produce such a phenomenal show, the entire cast and crew put many long hours into rehearsal. Auditions took place in January, and rehearsals began shortly thereafter in late January. The cast and crew rehearsed weekly until they performed the show from April 26-28. Some members came to the musical with no experience, but together, everyone improved immensely and put on a successful show. "Being apart of drama club has most definitely been my overall favorite part of high school." said Kelsey Silva.

Opening night brought a huge, lively audience to the auditorium. The NBHS Drama Club hadn't performed West Side Story in 32 years, so the cast and crew wanted to make sure they performed it well. Also, they felt the pressure to perform a great show because it was the first really big show they had performed in years. "West Side Story had the biggest audiences out of any show I had done before. I love how I grew up with Drama Club, and it grew up with me," commented Jacob Benoit.

The final show, Sunday at 2 pm was the most intense of the four shows. The Drama Club advisers, George Charbonneau and Armand Marchand, who had directed West Side Story 32 years ago were in the audience, so the heat was on to perform. It did turn out to be the best performance yet, however. "The most intense show of the four was the Sunday show because there were a lot of important people, along with the size of our crowd," explained Brennan Costa. He went on to say, "Our last show was the best we had."

Putting so much time in to find an amazing outcome was definitely worth it. Providing your own personality to a given role makes the performance so much fun,"* said Josiah Minero.

Military Ball:

"The Senior Dance brought tears to my eyes."

-Jordan Besse

On April 26th 2013, The 133rd annual Military Ball was held for the J.R.O.T.C. Program at The Century House. The night began when Cadet Command Sargent Major Alfredo Parrilla introduced the guests of the night. Parrilla thanked Mr. Dzialo and Mr. Crook for their service to New Bedford High School in honor of their retirement at the end of the 2012-2013 school year.

The most important guest of the year was Mr. Albert Leal, a Koren War Vet, who was born in Italy, but was determined to become a part of the U.S. Military. He stood in front of the cadets and their dates and told them, "Serving in the U.S. Military was the best thing I've ever done in my life. I'd do it all over again if I had the opportunity. So to all who plan on joining the military, take advantage of serving your country."

Senior and Cadet Battalion Commander Blake Rogers-Monteiro started off the very first dance, known as the Senior Dance, with his date, as the rest of the Seniors quickly followed. "The Senior Dance brought tears to my eyes and is surely a very memorable moment," stated Jordan Besse. The rest of the night was truly amazing and created many memories for all cadets.

Cadet Battalion Commander Lieutenant Colonel Blake Rogers-Monteiro hands Mr. Crook and Mr. Dzialo Teacher of the Year awards and thanks them for all the wonderful service, time and dedication they have put into New Bedford High School. "For those cadets who have touched my life in any way at NBHS, you know who you are, I am truly grateful for all you have done. To all the Senior cadets, NBHS and the J.R.O.T.C. have absolutely prepared you to be a person of influence for good in the world, and I wish you all the best. I could not be more proud of you. Congratulations and thank you for allowing me to join in this wonderful celebration," said Mr. Crook.

"If you consider Lex to be famous, she's the famous athlete that inspires me. She has so much passion for the game and is just an outstanding athlete!"

-Chandler Palmieri

The Lady Whalers faced a tough season this spring. They had big shoes to fill, losing four star players from last season. They also lost three-time Player of the Year, Alexis Debrosse to a torn ACL she got during soccer season. "I wish I could play the whole season. I do contribute to the team by motivating them with speeches and trying to pump them up every game," said Debrosse. Although the Whalers were missing a big part of their team, it didn't stop them from fighting every game. They became a family over the course of the season and stayed together through the wins and the losses.

"We decided to stick it out and end our season on the right note."

-Carl Santos III

The Whaler Boys had a bit of a rocky start to the 2013 season, but they quickly turned it all around. Halfway through the season, the Whalers went on a winning streak and improved their record immensely. "We realized we weren't playing up to our potential, and we decided to stick it out and end our season on the right note," explained outfielder Carl Santos III.

The best game of the season was the home game against Barnstable. The Whalers scored eight runs in just the first inning and ended up beating the Red Raiders 12-6.

The 2013 season brought much success for the Whaler Girls Lacrosse team. This season the girls came together not only as a team but as a family working together and qualifying for states. Despite a few set backs in their season each of them worked harder and harder to progress.

Beating Stang was the best moment of the season for the girls because the Whalers swept them by six goals. This win pushed them to believe they could face the upcoming teams with confidence in each other and their own skill "To me, it felt really good to beat Stang because last year I didn't get a chance to play them due to being away. Everyone always says they're such a hard team, so it felt great bringing home a win," commented Alexandra Robinson.

Sticking It Out

"It was the battle of the city."

-Troy Rocha

As the underdogs of the Maritime Conference - the only school lacking a feeder program, the Whalers still succeeded in improving on the basics, maintaining team unity, and bringing to the city an understanding of lacrosse as a sport with technique and not just a game of football with sticks.

The highlight of the season was the match up against New Bedford Voc Tech. It was an intense back and forth game that ended in a close score of 5-6. "It was the battle of the city - always the best game of the season for both teams," commented Troy Rocha.

The Last Lap

"It was an awesome season; I accomplished a lot, and I had fun", said Ellie Bucknell. The NBHS girls Spring track team finished the season off with a 4-2 record, and although they did not win the BIG 3 title, the girls overall had one of their best seasons. There was several team and individual accomplishments, Seniors Mellisa Isidor, Jessica Barros, Brigitte Morais, Toni Lipscomb, Sara Ferreira, and Abury Williams all qualified for states.

Shining on and off the track these girls were perfect examples of what being Whaler is all about, strength. They showed that win or lose they were determined to come up on top and dominate in personal records. Every meet was a new challenge ready to be faced. Ending their season was bittersweet, but each of them knew they accomplished their best and that's what mattered.

"I always tell my team 'It's never over' because volleyball is a sport where you can come back and win, and that's what we will do"

-Nathan Bates

Coming into the season with the loss of seven key players, the boys volleyball team knew they had to prove to everyone that they are still an overall strong team. "We all had confidence, I knew we had a few returning players; it was just a matter of filling in the remaining spots," said Nathan Bates.

The boys volleyball team had a major goal entering the season, and that was to get revenge against their rivalry the Voc Tech Bears who beat the Whalers 3-2 last year. The Whalers showed up on the court ready to win and got the victory against Voc 3-2. "No one thought we had a chance at beating Voc, we just believed in ourselves and got the win," said Tyler Arena.

The boys fell short against Durfee and Brockton, but even if they didn't win Big 3, they still picked themselves up and strove to play harder, "I always tell the team 'It's never over' because volleyball is a sport where you can come back and win, and that's what we will do," said Nathan Bates. Overall, the Boys had one of their best seasons.

Tyler said his favorite aspect of the game is "the fact that you can lose a set but still come back and win the game." Serving against Dartmouth, Joshua Pontes went on a serving streak, scoring multiple points for the Whalers. "It saddens me to think about the end of high school volleyball," Joshua said as the end of his last season approached. Congratulating his teammate after a good play, Justin Medeiros heads back to ready position for the next play. Joshua Pontes jumps up to block the hit from Voc's hitter. "Playing Voc was very challenging," said Pontes, but the Whalers got the victory over the Bears in the end.

The Tassel was worth the Hassle

Congratulations Class of 2013!!!

Cap, check. Gown, check. Tassel, check. Looks like you're all set to graduate, huh? Think again, us seniors went through so much hard work and dedication to get to where each of us are now. Getting all of our credits, making sure we're all set with community service hours, and passing MCAS Yes, we seniors went through a lot. But I believe I say this with confidence that that one moment of us grabbing that diploma made those four years worth it.

With the number 13 being considered unlucky as stated by our Class Valedictorian Caitlin Hills, the Senior Class seemed to think otherwise. With signs letting us know that the number 13 was unlucky, we couldn't help but be proud of it. Things from weather to postponements, we still considered ourselves the luckiest ones on that field on June 14th of 2013.

This year has been a journey for each and every individual here at New Bedford High School. But no journey was too big or too small, for that feeling of accomplishment outweighs any obstacle we went through to achieve it. Congratulations to the Class of 2013 for making it, and good luck to every graduate on any path they decide to take in the future.
